"The Georgians."

The above is the title of a new serial story by Will N. Harben, one of the most popular writers of high class fiction now before the literary world. The opening chapters will appear in the Easter edition of Pennsylvania Grit, April 3, and in that paper run from week to week until completed, perhaps six or eight weeks, after which it will be published in book form by the Harpers, of New York, at $1.50. By buying Grit, 5c. the copy, you can read this beautiful Southern story at a total cost of not more than 40 cents, and get an art picture worth the money with the Easter number free. The picture is a reproduction of the famous painting "Faith," by Anderson, and is handsome enough to adorn any parlor in the land. Beside the features named the Easter number will contain illustrated scenes all over the world, special articles by prominent men, tales of adventure on sea and land, the Russo-Japanese war, wit and humor, news, &c. Send 5c. to Grit, Williamsport, Pa., for the Easter number, at any rate.

Didn't Even Say Good-Bye.

The Wilgus family, of which mention has been made in these columns on several occasions, left on Monday for Lexington, where Dewese Wilgus, the husband and father, will be placed in a hospital for treatment, as he is partially paralyzed and his mind impaired. His wife and the four children will go to Louisville to live with one of her sisters. They didn't say good-bye to their best friends, people who made it possible for them to live, and some think this ingratitude. But we incline to the idea that they could not bear the parting.

Hopkins, And Hopkins, Only.

On Monday week John Davis was called to Sandy Hook, in Elliott county, by a committee having in charge the erection of a bank building at that place, that they might confer with him as to the approximate cost, and may be make a contract. John says the people there claim that Hon. F. A. Hopkins must, and shall, if they can effect it, succeed himself as congressman from this district. And, Mr. Davis says, this wish is unanimously universal in that neck o' woods.

Death of Amos Nickell.

Amos Nickell, one of the oldest citizens in this vicinity, dropped dead while sitting at the breakfast table at the home of his son, Miles Nickell near Daysboro, on Saturday morning last. The particulars have not reached us, though it is probable he was the victim of apoplexy or heart failure, but being of a stocky build the former was more likely the immediate cause of his demise.

Of Interest in the Kitchen.

Matter of varied interest to the housewife is provided in the April Delineator. An article on serving the formal luncheon and dinner contains many practical suggestions, and is illustrated effectively. Dainty Dishes for Easter, illustrated, is of seasonal interest. Luncheon Dishes and Entrees from Left-overs will prove a valuable aid to economy, and Delaware Hot Breads seem tempting enough to dispose of even the objections of cold bread advocates. Delicious Sweet Fritters and Novel Oyster Recipes are other culinary topics.

You can get THE HERALD and Weekly Courier-Journal for twelve months for only $1.00.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

Primary to Be Held on Saturday, May 7, 1904, to Nominate a Democratic Candidate for Congress, 10th Dist.

Pursuant to resolutions adopted by the Democratic Executive Committee of the 10th Congressional District of Kentucky at the official called meeting, held at the Lager House, in Paintsville, Ky., on Feb. 5th, 1904, it is ordered and directed—

That there be held on May the 7th, 1904, between the hours of 6 a. m. and 4 p. m., at the various voting places in each of the counties composing the Tenth Congressional District of Kentucky, a primary election, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Congress to be voted for at the November election, 1904.

All legal voters affiliating with the Democratic party, and those who will be legal voters at the November election, 1904, and who announce their intention of affiliating with the Democratic party, and all of whom are residents of the district, will be entitled to vote in said primary.

Given under our hands this the 8th day of March, 1904.

D. W. GARDNER,

Chairman Democratic Executive Committee 10th Congressional District of Kentucky.

W. M. BYINGTON, Secretary.

Is the Laborer Worthy His Hire.

To the Democrats of this Senatorial District, greeting: I am a candidate for the office of Senator from this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party, and ask all Democrats to weigh well my claims. For nearly 20 years I have been a citizen and a voter at Hazel Green, and by reason of my position I believe I can safely say I have done as much, if not more, for the success of the party than any man. In the time I have never scratched a ticket, and all in all I feel that I am not asking above my dues. Then, having become a mountain man, I have on all occasions taken pride in silencing slanders about mountain people, and in this I know I deserve the gratitude of a much-maligned people. Hoping you appreciate my past services sufficient to merit your continued confidence, and praying your support, I remain, Truly yours,

SPENCER COOPER,

Identified with every interest to aid the mountain people.

Wm. Woodhouse who came here a month since to work in this office, was stricken with "heart trouble" early Saturday morning and left that day for Lexington to be treated, so that we are again without help. We pray our patrons to abide in patience until we can make other arrangements and give them a better paper.

An accident on the railroad on Monday so delayed trains that the Wilgus family had to stay over at Helechawa that night, and for the same reason Miss Eva Jackson, who was going to Montgomery to see her sick father, had to remain over at Jackson. Particulars not learned.

Jeff Vancleave and two sons-in-law, Calvin Elam and Wayne Smith, together with their several families, have moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Em Lacy, who removed to the one vacated by the Wilgus family. They will crop for Ed Cecil.

THE GREATEST WONDER.

From All the World Have Come Wonders to Make Man Cry in Amazement When He Visits St. Louis This Year.

Since long before the Christian era, when Antipater of Sidon enumerated seven great works that subsequently became the Seven Wonders of the World, wonders have been accumulating until their number has become not only seven times seven or seventy times seven, but hundreds—yes, thousands—times seven.

Every great modern bridge is a wonder of the world. So is every great power engine, mountain climbing railroad or modern hotel.

And the greatest wonder of all, greater than any of yesterday and today, is the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

This is because it combines the greatness of all the others and because those others were instrumental in bringing it to a state of completeness.

In order that the whole world should participate in this centennial display, the wonders of the steamship, of the locomotive, of the cable, of the land telegraph, of the telephone, were brought into use; then exhibits of these wonders themselves were levied upon to form part of the grand display.

Mention anything that causes man to express amazement, and it will be proved to you that it can be seen in St. Louis this year.

The wireless telegraph? A station has been erected on the Fair grounds. Radium? Experiments will be con-change the course of all ships that ply the seas.

You marvel at the growth of transportation facilities within the last decade; each step will be shown you at St. Louis. You hear of a food that can be compressed into a pill; how it is done will be shown you at St. Louis. And you can partake of a course dinner, from soup to dessert, all of which can be held in a box which would contain twelve two-grain quinine capsules.

Creation of electricity! What wonder would not Franklin express could he see a modern dynamo manufacturing thousands of Jove's thunderbolts every minute, forcing a tiny stream of water to lift great weights! Marvel, then, at the powers of the hydraulic press!

Can man make snow? Look into the great refrigeration plant. Can water be set on fire? It will appear so when the cascades are illuminated by submerged lamps after nightfall.

Planting potatoes is now done by a machine which takes the "earth apple," cuts out the eyes, halves or quarters it, pushes the sections into the soil at equal intervals and covers them, thus tucking away the germs of life as a mother would tuck away a child in bed. This machine will be an exhibition during the summer of 1904.

Flowers will tell the time of day; at least they will appear to do so. Vines nesting on steel pointers, both of which weigh more than a ton, will travel around the circumference of a circle where grow numerals of brilliant foliage.

Near by bloom 20,000 rosebushes imbedded in a six acre plot. Was there ever such a wonderful display?

Revs. Robert M. Hopkins and a Mr. Gebauer arrived here Tuesday, since which they have been lecturing at the Christian church, as per program published on the 3rd inst. The stereopticon views will be given tomorrow (Friday) night.

The statement last week that Ed and Oscar Cecil had each purchased a one-third interest in the stock of John M. Rose's store was erroneous, as they each bought a one-fourth interest only.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both more, of the weed than any State in the Union. Every farmer should have a copy of the document, if for no other reason than to show that they have one friend in congress who is an indefatigable worker for their welfare. He scores the trusts in a masterly manner, and the beauty of it is that he backs up his utterances with undeniable proof of their greed. Mr. Hopkins should place his speech in the hands of every farmer in the Tenth district, at least, whether he be a tobacco grower or no, as it is of general interest to the people. In the course of his remarks he says: "To our demand we will accept but one answer and but one promise from those intrusted with the further enforcement of these laws, and that will be that they will treat all persons alike; and we believe that if those who violate the trust laws were arrested and placed in stripes behind the bars as the common criminal is, it would do more toward correcting this evil than anything else which can be done."

FEATURES of THE WORLD'S FAIR

A model farm, representing a section of 100 acres, illustrating the value of crop rotation in farming, will be one of the interesting exhibits provided by the Government. A model farmhouse, model barn, stables and outbuildings will be erected, and there will be an orchard, vineyard, garden, stock and poultry yards, pigsties and all of the other equipments for a farmstead.

A floral clock with a dial 100 feet in diameter is on the northern slope in front of the Palace of Agriculture. It is the largest timepiece ever constructed. The minute hand is fifty feet long and the numerals fifteen feet high. Flowers and foliage plants conceal the mechanical frame.

Kentucky will have a fine display of minerals, especially coal and timber.
